NUM. 3007

FRIDAY DECEMBER 30, 1743.

Naples, December 10.

Several great Councils of State have been held within these few Days, without our being able to learn, with any Certainty, the Subjects upon which they turn. We push our Levies with the utmost Vigour, in order to reinforce our Troops, which are advanced as far as Aquila, on the Frontiers of the Ecclesiastical State. We still labour under the great Inconveniency of numberless Cabals against the Government; which, to Foreigners, must seem an Argument that we are ill governed, if our Histories did not sufficiently prove that we have cabilled alike against all Governments. Our last Advices from Reggio do, indeed, say, that the Plague declines apace; but they admit, that there are still some Hundreds infected, and therefore the Communication with Calabria is not yet restored.

Bologna, December 17. M. Molinari, our Vice-Legat, returned lately from Ferrara. We understand that he has settled with Prince Lobkowitz, General, and Commander in Chief of her Hungarian Majesty's Forces, the Quantities of Forage with which we are to furnish them. He reports this Army to consist of 18,000 Men, and their Repartition will be made in equal Numbers on the Legations of Bologna, Ferrara, and Ravenna. According to the last Advices we have from the March of Ancona, it plainly appears, from the Dispositions made by the Spaniards, that they intend to take Winter-Quarters about Macerata; with which View, they are raising, in that Neighbourhood, prodigious Magazines of Forage and Provisions. By their taking Post in this Part of the Country, they will have their Retreat open towards the Kingdom of Naples. Some Letters from Rome intimate, that warm People there censure Prince Lobkowitz, as if he had not pushed the Spaniards so briskly as he might have done; but these Notions must necessarily arise from Misrepresentations; since it is certain, that the Germans are not more numerous than the Spaniards, and that the latter have always secured themselves in well fortified Posts; so that it is, on the whole, rather wonderful that Prince Lobkowitz has been able to do so much, than that he has been able to do no more.

Frankfort, December 29. It is now very certain, that the French Ministers, Count de Lautrec and M. de Chavigny, have carried their Point, and prevailed on his Imperial Majesty not to listen to the Proposals made him, on the Part of the Court of Vienna, by the Maritime Powers. The Preparations for War are carried on with greater Warmth than ever by most of the German Powers; but, particularly, by his Imperial Majesty and the Queen of Hungary. It is scarce conceivable, with how great Address the former has contrived to put his Troops, into the best Quarters, and the best Condition possible; but so it is, that his Infantry will be complete by the End of next Month, and his Cavalry remounted, and ready to march, by the 1st of April; when, according to all Appearance, this Army of the Empire, for so, no doubt, it will be called, must be assembled in our Neighbourhood. Col. Mentzel is suddenly and unexpectedly march'd, with his Hussars, for Bivaria, contrary to every Body's Expectation; it being believed he was to make the next Campaign in the Army of the Allies, on the Side of Flanders.

Ratisbon, December 26. On the 14th of this Month there appeared a Rescript from his Prussian Majesty, tending to destroy the Reports which had been raised, of his Majesty's Design to invade the Dominions of the Queen of Hungary. This Paper is conceived in very strong Terms, and is filled with the warmest Assurances of his Prussian Majesty's sincere Disposition, to adhere strictly to the Treaty of Breslau. Some of our Politicians fancy, that all this may be well enough reconciled to the new Project, for disturbing the Peace of Germany; which, like the last, owes its Contrivance to the Intrigues of a French Cardinal. In short, these People do not believe that there will be any Action on the Side of Moravia, tho' very probably, Things may be so disposed, as to oblige the Queen of Hungary to keep up a considerable Army in that Province; but the great Push, believed, will be made on the Side of Bavaria, from an Opinion conceived of the French Court, that the Emperor will find more hearty Allies, at least among the German Princes, in a Scheme for restoring him to his hereditary Dominions, than in a War of Acquisition. Hague, January 3. The Abbe de la Ville, his most Christian Majesty's Minister here, during the Absence of the Marquis de Fenelon, expresses great Astonishment at the Report of that Nobleman's being to return no more; but, on the contrary, betaking himself to a Military Employment. He insists upon it, that it is absolutely false and groundless; and that the Marquis de Fenelon will not be absent above six Weeks, at most. He treats, likewise, as a mere Fiction, the Story of that Minister's having procured Copies of the secret Resolutions of the States; and appeals, for the Truth of this Declaration, to the States themselves, who, he says, know better than any body can pretend to do, that there really never were any such Resolutions, as that Minister is said to have discovered.

DAFFY'S Original and Famous Elixir Salutis,
Truly Prepared by me

Susannah Daffy, who for many Years Prepared the same for my late Mother Mrs. Elizabeth Daffy, of Salisbury-Court, Fleet-street, deceased, Widow of the late Doctor Elias Daffy, who was Son of Anthony Daffy (the first Inventor) by Eleanor Daffy, his Wife, both deceased.

To be had at the Second House on the Right Hand, in Bell-Savage-Yard, Ludgate-Hill: each Bottle Sealed with my Seal (being the Daffy's Coat of Arms) as above, and Printed Directions given by me, SUSANNAH DAFFY.

Note, Numbers of Advertisements have been heretofore and are still Printed, in the Daily and other Papers, of Daffy's Elixir truly Prepared: But all Persons may be assured, that the True Original Daffy's Elixir, is Prepared by Me, and no One else (except by my Brother Anthony Daffy) and is to be had as above.

The most Noble ELIXIR,
For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease or Vapours in Women.

In three Days Time demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but their reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or deprav'd, and where the Mind is confuted with terrible Perturbation, Anxiety, and Despondency, even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

'Tis surprising to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of cheerful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black Thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so sensibly dwell upon the soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroy'd all hopes of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a Flow of cheerful'd Spirits, and causes bright Gleams of Joy to break upon the Heart, and chase away the whole Load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits, steady, serene, and gay thoughts, find as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal Way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Imaginations, as before, they were hopeless of ever gaining free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is so suddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRICK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERIC DISEASE or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is inexplicable, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no Manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

The only true Specifick Tincture
For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such infinite Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above Twenty Years past, by its vastly exceeding all other Things, and formerly invented or lately contriv'd for these Purposes.

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most concerning Pain, when nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its Return.

As only once using it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decay'd, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Swelling in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Foulness, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to secure the Character here given of it, literally, and in every respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues, by which it has justly gain'd such an universal and unparalleled great Character, have occasion'd, as usual in such cases, various frequent Endeavours to mimic it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Pots, in Haydon-Yard, in the Moories, London, at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

God Allotments to all who truly Desires for Expiration.

To S M E L L to, &c.
The Most Noble, Volatile S M E L L I N G - B O T T L E
in the World, lately much improved.

WHICH smelted to, instantly relieves Persons in the most dismal fainting or swooning Fits, and in a Moment removes Fluffings, Vapours, Head-ach, Megrims, &c. It takes off all heavy Sleeps, retards Swoonings, keeps up the Spirits to a Rattle, and by its Use admits of no Fainting; but invigorates and enlivens the whole Man, recreates and makes cheerful, tho' never so sad, and in a Moment raises all the Faculties.

It is also to be taken inwardly by Drops, which effectually takes off and eradicates the very Cause; for it potently believes, comforts, and strengthens the Brain, creates and corroborates the Stomach, removes Sickness from it, helps Digestion, cleanses the Blood; and, in a Word, is the greatest Chymical, Stomachick, Hepatick, and powerful Antacid possible.

Whereas many Persons of both Sexes perfume their Handkerchiefs with a few Drops of it, and find that using it so, it is of singular Service in all the Cases above mentioned; and many Gentlemen, Ladies and Others use after this Manner, purely because it gives a most fragrant and delicious Odour, that constantly both delights and refreshes the Senses, not only better than any thing of a musky kind (which is really hurtful to most Constitutions) but really takes off what such Things do occasion; and it relieves the Head and Brain from any ill Effects of common Snuff, and instantly diverts from, and prevents the bad Sequences of any sudden, nauseous, offensive Smells, which is extremely necessary for all Gentlemen, Ladies, &c. who to be carried in their Pockets.

Sold only at Mrs. Markham's Great Toy-shop, at the Blue Stars, now (since she is removed) directly over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. King's Warehouse in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, at 6 d. a Bottle.
